

1. The motto of the Khasi Unitarians is “To Nangroi,” [TWO-nahng-ROY] which means “keep on progressing.” Can you think of something in your church that is like a motto?	2. Khasis believe that heaven and hell are states of being here on earth, not after death. What would be an example of “heaven on earth” for you?
3. All churches in the Unitarian Union agree with a statement of Principles of the Unitarian Faith. They have 15 principles in their statement. How many are in the UUA Statement of Principles and Purposes? Can you say them? Or some of them?	4. “BLEI,” [BLAY] the Khasi word for God, means “Who can do for you without expecting anything in return.” Khasis believe God’s expects no reward or payment for creation and protection.
5. Khasi Unitarians believe in the forgiveness and the love of God. Has anyone ever forgiven you? Who was it and what were you forgiven for?	6. To the Khasi Unitarians, Jesus was a great teacher, but not the actual son of God. His two great teachings were “to love God and to love fellow humans.” Do you know something else Jesus taught?

7. Khasi Unitarians believe that holy books from other religions are good and can help them gain a better understanding of God. Can you name a holy book from a religion other than Christianity?		8. Khasi Unitarians believe that the Bible was written by God-searching people and has both truths and errors in it. Have you ever read from the Bible at home or in your church school? Do you have a favorite Bible story?
9. Children and youth run their own Sunday school service before and after classes. If you were in charge of a Sunday school service, what would you include?		10. Ministers in the Unitarian Union are called Church Visitors. Each is responsible for 3-5 congregations. Usually they are unpaid volunteers with some special training. Today they are working hard to develop a training program. Does your church ever have visiting ministers or volunteer speakers?
11. A chalice is found inside most Khasi Unitarian churches. Sometimes a banner with the motto, “To Nangroi” is also in the church. What would a visitor find every Sunday in your church?		12. The Khasis have one book for worship. It includes readings, responsive readings, hymns and prayers. Do you have a favorite hymn, reading, or prayer? What is it?

13. There are 4 church activities every Sunday: 7am children's worship service led by the children, 10:30am Sunday School classes, 1:30 pm worship service for everyone, and 6:30 pm home service where a different family hosts the service each week. How long do the Sunday activities last in your church?		14. Each service has readings, hymns, prayers and a sermon given by a member of the congregation, who is the service leader. Do members of your church, or the children, or youth help to lead the worship services?
15. On Wednesday nights there is a special service, and on Saturday nights there is another service led by young people. Does your church ever have services or special events in the middle of the week?		16. The children's religious education classes follow lesson plans that are the same for all churches. Today the churches are working hard to improve the teaching and materials in Sunday Schools. They have an RE Committee that is writing a new curriculum. What Sunday School activity have you liked most this year?
17. On September 18 each year the Khasi Unitarians celebrate the anniversary of the founding of Unitarianism in North East India. They invite others who are not Unitarian to join them for a big feast and an evening service, followed by dances of different types by children and youth through the whole night. This is the only State holiday for Unitarianism in the world. Does your church celebrate a special anniversary or date in its history?		18. Name one thing you've learned that Khasi Unitarians do or believe that is different from you.

19. Name another thing you've learned that Khasi Unitarians do or believe that is the same as you.		20. If your Church School class got together with a class from the Khasi Hills, what do you think would be most fun to do together?
21. Here are some of the words to a popular children's song: God with love calls you, Children come, children come! His words always speaks to you: Come! children come! Come and walk the "Narrow Way" Come to earn your life, Come to prepare your soul; Come ! Children Come! Does your church have a special song for children?		