The campaign "Save Rosia Montana" - Report VI from the EU “Evening with Ombudsman

<http://bit.ly/LoNrvD> - fall? 2013

“The Romanian campaign "Save Rosia Montana" was a showcase example of social involvement (of both the local community and of residents in the entire country) in the actions intended to raise the issue of respecting fundamental rights. The residents of the zone in which a mine was to be founded formed an organisation in order to fight for their rights. The steps taken by the organisation led to the concentration of a desired degree of social mobilisation around the issue. . . .”
